SPURS KICK OFF TOURS!

The first of 20 big matches to be played against visiting overseas teams throughout Australia in the next eight weeks will take place at Olympic Park, Melbourne, at 3 p.m. on Sunday.

Victoria's opponent is London team Tottenham Hotspur, winner of the UEFA Cup, the European Cup Winner's Cup, two Football League Cups, five FA Cups, two League championships and the first English club to win the League Cup double this century.

Spurs have boasted some of England's finest players, including Jimmy Greaves, Dave Mackay, Allan Mullery, Danny Blanchflower and current stars Pat Jennings and Martin Chivers.

As has been the case with so many visiting teams, Spurs will come without two of its drawcards — goalkeeper Pat Jennings, and Alfie Conn, who are required by Northern Ireland and Scotland respectively, for the home international series.

But Chivers will be here, as will Steve Perryman, John Duncan, Keith Osgood and Ralph Coates.

It will be a line-up that will force the disjointed Victorian team to either improve 200 per cent on recent performances or sink without trace.

Spurs' other games are:

v. Northern NSW, Wednesday, May 12, in Newcastle

v. Australian XI, Sunday, May 16, in Sydney

v. South Australia, Wednesday, May 19, in Adelaide

v. Western Australia, Sunday, May 23, in Perth.

Sunderland, which won the 1973 FA Cup by beating Leeds United, and which has gained promotion by winning the English Second Division championship, will also play in Australia this month.

Sunderland will be followed in June by the visit of Italian club Bologna and the Italian Army team, featuring top-name players.

Spurs' tour party

The Tottenham touring party is:

PLAYERS

Barry Daines, goalkeeper; Mark Kendall, goalkeeper; Terry Naylor, defender; Mike Stead, defender; Don McAllister, defender; John Pratt, midfield; William Young, midfield; Keith Osgood, defender; Steve Walford, stopper; Glenn Hoddle, midfield; Jimmy Neighbour, forward; Steve Perryman, midfield; Martin Chivers, forward; John Duncan, forward; Chris Jones, forward; Ralph Coates, forward; Gerrard Armstrong, midfield.

OFFICIALS

Mr S.A. Wale, chairman; Mr H.G. Groves, director; Mr A. Richardson, director; Mr Terry Neil, manager; Mr Keith Burkinshaw, coach; Mr John Wallis, trainer; Mr George Verney, physiotherapist; Mr A. D'Arcy, tour director.

The team will arrive at the Sydney overseas terminal by Air New Zealand Flight No 379 on Thursday, May 6 at 6.55 pm., and transfer to Flight T.A.A. 453 to Melbourne departing Sydney at 8.15 pm and arriving in Melbourne at 9.30 pm.

Duncan scored eleven

Spurs forward John Duncan is on his second tour of Australia.

He was here with Dundee in 1972, and finished as the team's second highest goal scorer on tour.

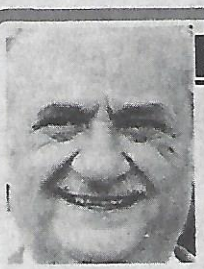
Duncan netted 11 in seven games. Jocky Scott beat him, with 15 goals.

Duncan scored one of the goals in Dundee's 4-2 victory over Victoria, one against the ACT (9-1), one against Queensland (9-0), three against NSW (6-1) and three against Northern Rivers in Lismore (score: 16-1).

He also netted three in Dundee's 7-0 thrashing of an Auckland XI in New Zealand.

Wolves' Taylor (left) is beaten by Martin Chivers of Spurs in a heading duel.

Backers named next week



The president of the Australian Soccer Federation, Sir Arthur George (pictured) said this week he was confident Victoria would change its mind about joining the proposed national league.

Sir Arthur said: "I am sure that when the numbers go up, Victoria will do the right thing and come into a national competition."

Victoria's standing decision is that none of its clubs will compete in the national league, scheduled to kick off next March.

Sir Arthur said he would release all details about national league sponsorship within a week.

"In my opinion, it's a goer," he said.

SHOULDER TO PICK B SQUAD

National coach Jim Shoulder will use for the matches against Tottenham Hotspur and Sunderland, the same squad that played against New Zealand.

The squad is:

Goal Keepers: Todd Clarke (Hakoah-ES), Alan Maher (Marconi).

Full backs: Doug Utjesenovic (St. George), George Harris (St. George), Jim Tansey (Slavia).

Centre backs: Peter Wilson (Western Suburbs), Colin Bennett (APIA), Richie Bell (Pan Hellenic).

Midfielders: Agenor Muniz (Hakoah-ES), Dave Harding (Wests), Jim Rooney (APIA), Gary Byrne (Marconi).

Forwards: Peter Ollerton (SM-Hellas), Murray Barnes (Hakoah-ES), Attila Abonyi (St. George), Mark Jankovic (St. George), John Nyskohus (Lion Adelaide).

A national B squad will be announced later.

It will play against Victoria in the curtain-raiser to the Australia v Sunderland match in Melbourne on Tuesday, May 25.

SOCCEROOS FOR POLAND?

The Socceroos' overseas tour at the end of the season, may be extended to Poland, and the Polish under 21 team may visit Australia.

The Melbourne company Contal and its director Mr Zarzewski, may be interested in helping to sponsor the visit of the under 21s.

The promotions firm organisation Sportives of Paris is behind the move to line up matches in Poland for the Socceroos.

THE NUMBERS GAME

with KNUT WERNER

This week we are going to get a little ambitious in the hope of taking vast sums of money from Mr Vernon.

God knows he has enough.

Taking 36 numbers I have combined them 8 ways (see coupons at right) into system 12.

This is best for syndicate operators as the cost is $12.

Good luck.

Last week's score draw numbers: 6, 13, 14, 17, 19, 20, 32, 42, 43, 53. The scoreless match numbers are — 3, 5, 7.

Still, still, smile, click!

Damn! Too much light. That's about all the average person knows about a camera.

And Pat Kennelly is trying to tell professional technicians where to place their cameras.

This is the reason we had no telecast of the soccer last Saturday.

It takes so much organising to get the crew set up and it takes one man to stop the works.

They're always saying that soccer needs more money and here they are shoving the spectators around.

Funny, funny people.

I should never have published last week's letter regarding Knut Werner. As you would have noticed, he did not write last week.

It took him all this time to come down off cloud nine.

We couldn't find him for a week. He was in an absolute daze.

From now on, if someone can send in a completely correct pools entry then can have a choice of prizes.

1. 2lb box of chocolates.
2. 24 roses.
3. Full sized pin-up of Knut Werner.

This week's numbers are predicted by Mr Fred Fillis of Footscray.

His numbers are: 7, 15, 18, 21, 25, 31, 42, 48, 51, 55.

We'll see the type of person he is by the prize he chooses. Send you lucky predictions to: Marilyn, Soccer Action, 250 Spencer Street Melbourne, 3000.

Cedo Cirkovic

COACH HITS REFS!

Cedo Cirkovic, coach of leading State League team Footscray JUST, said last week he felt like quitting soccer because of the poor standard of refereeing in Victoria.

Cirkovic also claimed that some referees were picking on his players just because they have difficult foreign names.

He said referees should be assessed in every game by an independent judge who would award points from one to five.

If a referee received less than three points for a match, he should be suspended from State League games for four weeks, Cirkovic said.

"Something has to be done to improve refereeing in Victoria," he said.

"I played soccer for 22 years and have been closely associated with the game for about 27 years, but at the moment I feel like giving it all away, because the refereeing makes me sick."

Cirkovic's outburst followed the suspension for two weeks of JUST's international forward Branko Buljevic who, together with Francis Mifsud of George Cross, was sent off the field during the JUST v. George Cross match last week.

Mifsud was also suspended for two weeks.

"There is no consistency in these matters," Cirkovic said.

"A few weeks ago, Kevin Walker of George Cross committed an offence that was seen by thousands of people on TV, yet he got off scot free when he faced the disciplinary committee.

"Then Derek Doolan of George Cross was sent off and he wasn't suspended either.

"All Buljevic did was try to stop players from hitting him, yet he gets two weeks.

"I must consider getting my players to change their names.

"It seems that if you've got an English name, you get off, but if you've got a Yugoslav, Greek or other European name, you get suspended.

"I've even heard referees laughing about my players' names when they look at the team sheet."

Cirkovic, whose players are mainly Yugoslavs, stressed he was complaining about referees not only because Buljevic has been suspended.

"The standard of refereeing here has been bad for a long time," he said.

"Apart from some like Jack Readshaw and Bob Henderson and a couple of others, the referees are totally inadequate."

Lamb replies

Roger Lamb, president of the Referees' Association, Victorian Division, said: "It would be a good thing for soccer if people with Mr Cirkovic's parochial type of thinking got out of the game.

"Anyway, is he annoyed with the disciplinary committee or with the referees?

"He seems to be complaining more about the disciplinary committee. We have nothing to do with that.

"As for the referees themselves, I can assure Mr Cirkovic they are completely impartial.

"I have been associated with the game for many years and I've never known any referee to cast aspersions on any nationality and if that ever happened, the person concerned would no longer be allowed to referee.

"As for what Mr Cirkovic says about the standard of refereeing, he and others don't understand what is involved, so it is immature to make such an outburst.

"We have every confidence in the standard of refereeing. The standard of refereeing is equal to that of the game."

Impertinent!

OUR SAY

An "impertinence"—that's what commentator Tony Charlton called former Senator Pat Kennelly's interference in the affairs of Channel Nine and soccer.

We couldn't agree more.

Mr Kennelly refused Channel 9 permission to put up its cameras at Olympic Park last Saturday, because he didn't like the camera angle.

He wanted the cameras to be on the terraces, shooting into the grandstand, to get spectators into the picture.

Channel 9 explained that if it relocated its cameras, it would be shooting into the sun, and no camera can shoot into the sun.

Mr Kennelly wouldn't listen. The cameras were banned from the ground and there was no soccer on television on Saturday afternoon.

Mr Kennelly, by the way, is the chairman of the Albert Park management committee.

What we would like to know is what television has to do with Mr Kennelly.

If anyone is to worry about camera angles, shouldn't it be Channel Nine itself, or the VSF?

Don't Hellas and Hakoah rent the Middle Park stadium?

Has a landlord got the right to come into your house and kick out your visitors?

Let's just hope that this does not herald the end of soccer on television.

GTV9's general manager David Evans certainly did not sound sympathetic towards the game after the incident last week.

Spurs sink Fiji

SUVA. — Tottenham Hotspur gave Fiji a lesson in soccer, beating the island's national team 4-0 at Churchill Park, Lautoka.

The lesson involved the value of possession, of accurate passing, good teamwork and lively positional play.

International Martin Chivers had to leave the field towards the end with an ankle injury.

Fiji players tended to hold the ball too long and lacked the combination and positional skill to press home their attacks.

Spurs players on the sideline said they were impressed with Fiji midfield man Satva Singh.

Fiji goalkeeper Savenaca Waqa of Nadi made several good saves under pressure.

Spurs struck early on in the match as Chivers netted after a good centre by Chris Jones.

Then Armstrong hit number two from another pass by Jones and Spurs led 2-0 at half-time.

Spurs made it three with a goal from Jones.

Soon afterwards Savenaca made a brilliant save from Armstrong but he had no chance as John Duncan hit number four.

Spurs line-up: Davies, Naylor, Pratt, Young, Osgood, Coates, Hoddle, Armstrong, Stead, Chivers, Jones. Subs Kendall, Neighbour, Duncan.

Goals for Spurs: Chivers, Armstrong, Jones, Duncan. Crowd: 7000.

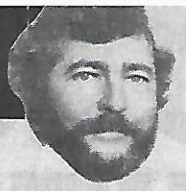
THE SYDNEY SCENE

with BRIAN MOSSOP



Doyle proves value

APIA 3 (Doyle 2, Butler), HAKOAH 2 (Barnes, Mowbray)

Peter Ollerton may have left APIA, but the club has found a reliable replacement goalscoring machine in former South Sydney striker John Doyle.

And in the chase to retain the premiership they captured last season, APIA could hardly do better than pin their hopes on the likes of winger Terry Butler.

It was Doyle and Butler who were the real playmakers as APIA tore the heart out of Hakoah-Eastern Suburbs at Lambert Park on Sunday.

But, with Butler off the field in agony due to lime burns following a tackle on the heavily coated sideline, Hakoah came storming back.

APIA won 3-2. But after dominating the game for 75 minutes they suddenly found themselves hanging in by their fingertips.

Australian team midfielder Agenor Muniz turned in one of his most forgettable displays before he, along with striker Terry Smith, was replaced in the ineffective Hakoah line-up by Albert Kinsey and Andy Tracey.

The substitutions had hardly been made when Hakoah sparked into life after skipper Henry Mowbray put them in with a fighting chance by lobbing an angled speculator past goalkeeper Dave McQuire.

Quite justly, APIA held out, although coach Fil Bottalico must have been appalled at the gaps which appeared in a suddenly-dishevelled defence.

No quarter was asked or given in the game in which Butler sparkled as well as scoring the opening goal and doing the spade-work for the second of Doyle's two goals.

Six appearances with APIA since the switch from Souths at $3500 have netted the 29-year-old Doyle eight goals — value in anyone's language.

And with teammates the calibre of Jimmy Rooney, Butler, Willie Wallace and Billy Rogers, there will be a lot more to come.

MATCH OF THE WEEK

Will Muniz get his spot back?

Hakoah-Eastern Suburbs and Western Suburbs, two teams in a slump, have varying chances to get themselves back into match-winning form next weekend.

On paper at least, Wests appear to have the easier task when they play tailenders Manly at home on Drummoyne Oval.

But the way Wests have been playing lately, nothing is certain, and the seasiders will be all out to make amends for their heavy defeat at the hands of St George last weekend.

Hakoah's storming finish after Albert Kinsey and Andy Tracey had been brought on 10 minutes into the second half against APIA last Sunday will create a problem for Hakoah coach George Keith.

Will he restore Australian team midfielder Agenor Muniz to the side for the match against South Sydney or leave him on the sidelines?

Muniz did not have a happy game against APIA, but with Souths lying confidently in fourth place on the premiership table after demolishing Wests, Hakoah will need all of their skills — and that could include the frizzy-haired South American.

Hakoah and Souths meet at Wentworth Park on Saturday for what should prove an absorbing game.

But the Sunday fare does not seem likely to bring the crowds rushing through the turnstiles.

Saints appear to have just to go through the motions to dispose of Sutherland who, aside from John Watkiss and John McDonald, do not have the players to trouble any opposition.

APIA are hardly likely to be too concerned about Auburn at Mona Park, but could be without their lively winger Terry Butler who was badly discomforted by a skin rash last weekend.

Like Saints, APIA are running hot, and it will take some good football to keep them from retaining the premiership title they won last winter.

Marconi should also have little trouble in clinching another two points when they tackle Granville at Marconi Oval while Sunday's most even match looms as that between Wollongong City and Pan Hellenic.

Two by Richards

MARCONI 4 (Richards 2, Keddie, Micevski), AUBURN 1 (Cornett)

Marconi-Fairfield skipper Ray Richards set the seal on a comfortable win for his club when he scored two goals within four minutes in the second half against Auburn at Mona Park.

Marconi finished strongly for a 4-1 victory after finding it hard to get going.

Play in the first half was mostly confined to the midfield where Richards and Gary Byrne won a lion's share of the ball for Marconi.

Marconi took the lead four minutes into injury time.

A long ball from Richards was headed against the crossbar by winger Bertie Mariani and centre forward Dave Keddie hit the rebound into the net.

Auburn hit back seven minutes after the interval with a quick breakaway goal by Ron Cornett.

Marconi regained the lead in the 59th minute when Mike Micevski scored from 35 metres.

In the last five minutes Richards scored two goals, in the 85th and 89th minutes, to cap a comfortable win for Marconi.

Wests keep falling

CROATIA 3 (Sulivan, Millen, Kovacic), WESTS 1 (Morrow)

It has taken just five matches for Ampol Cup champions Western Suburbs to fall from grace, and it is going to be a long hard climb back to the top.

Wests swept up the Cup in an eight-match winning sequence, but one draw and four losses later a stunned coach Archie Blue is still unable to pinpoint the trouble.

The team is looking good for much of each game and then coming to grief — as much on the strength of lost scoring chances as solid play by their opponents.

It was the same story against South Sydney who came from 0-1 behind to sail home 3-1 and settle into fourth place in the premiership hunt.

Wests' slump coincides with the loss of striker Clive Eaton.

Last Saturday's reversal came, ironically, with the loss of another Eaton, unrelated Terry, replaced in goal for the second half by his young understudy Wally Lachowicz.

Two goals within a few minutes of the resumption, one each by Marin Kovacic and Maurice Sullivan, had Souths' nose in front and that was just about the ball game.

Recent signing Billy Millen slotted home Souths' third goal to start off a weekend goal orgy by strikers who have switched clubs since the start of the competition.

Spilarewicz

Sydney second division club Riverside-Avala has been strengthened by the addition of Chris "Ziggy" Spilarewicz.

Spilarewicz, captain of the second division team which beat Canberra earlier this year, has been cleared to Riverside by Polonia.

He also played with Sydney top clubs Hakoah and Granville.

Doug Utjesenovic

It was no contest

ST GEORGE 7 (Jankovic 2, Utjesenovic 2, Morgan, R. O'Shea, Gray), MANLY 0

Pace and finesse gave St George a massive 7-0 victory over fledgling first division team Manly at Graham Reserve.

The rout started in the opening minute when World Cup players Atti Abonyi and Doug Utjesenovic combined on the right wing to find Mark Jankovic unmarked and he neatly turned the ball past Manly goalie Ron Corry.

Eleven minutes later a cross by John Stoddart which Corry failed to hold saw Utjesenovic crash a header into the corner of the net.

With St George attacking strongly and the Manly defence in lots of trouble, a 22nd-minute scrimmage in front of the Manly goal gave big Nev Morgan a chance to crash the ball past Corry for Saints' third goal.

The onslaught continued in the 39th minute when St George's Rob O'Shea gave Corry no chance after he picked up a loose ball from about 30 metres out and blasted it into the net.

With Corry not enjoying the best of matches, Jankovic notched his second goal in the 43rd minute after Corry mishandled.

Saints again attacked strongly and with Utjesenovic unmarked on the right wing he drove the ball under goalie Dean.

O'Connor stars again

WOLLONGONG 1 (Campbell), SUTHERLAND 0

Wollongong City beat Sutherland 1-0 in a sub standard match at Seymour Shaw. The main difference between the teams was the forceful running and skillfulness of Wollongong's left winger, Phil O'Connor.

Neither team showed much purpose nor sense of urgency in a lethargic and scoreless first half.

The only goal of the game was scored by Andy Campbell in the 62nd minute with a brilliant header from a corner by O'Connor.

Although Sutherland occasionally looked dangerous when breaking away, there were insufficient opportunities for their slow attack to put the ball into the net.

O'Connor covered every inch of the ground after half-time, seeking out the ball and distributing it accurately.

When running with the ball he continually posed a threat to the Sutherland goal and his quick shooting kept the Sutherland defence on their toes.

Sutherland stopper John Watkiss turned in a superb display and at least kept his team's losing margin respectable.

Sutherland still lack punch at the front and desperately need a striker who can score goals.

For Wollongong, captain-coach Herbie Williams and Hugh Tinney provide the experience for their young teammates.

Upset score

Marrickville caused the upset of the Sydney second division round by downing Guildford on Saturday.

Marrickville scored an early goal and defended stoutly for the remainder of the match to beat sixth-placed Guildford in an unexpected result.

It was Marrickville's third win of the season.

Bell shows way

PAN HELLENIC 2 (Dell, Drossos), GRANVILLE 0

Australian squad defender Richie Bell showed the way to goal for Pan Hellenic after a poor first half display by his team at Wentworth Park.

Hellenic ran out 2-0 winners against Granville after Bell opened their account in the 61st minute.

He went high for a magnificent header after Rodolfo Gnavi had scooped a corner from Hector Martinez across the face of the goal.

Michael Drossos received the message and 12 minutes later dribbled the ball through the Granville midfield and angled a 25-metre drive across goalkeeper Dennis Donovan into the net.

Bruce Stowell, Pan Hellenic's valuable midfield veteran, took all his team's free kicks, invariably waiting for Bell to come upon the scene before he hit the ball.

Gnavi slaved away in Pan Hellenic's midfield, but until the first goal came, the two teams appeared to be playing for a draw.

ANZAC DAY MATCHES

Hilton Silva sent off

MARCONI 3 (Keddie 2, Byrne), HAKOAH 1 (Honeyman)

Unpredictable Marconi, with the help of two goals from recent signing Dave Keddie, downed Hakoah 3-1 at Wentworth Park.

Keddie, formerly of Auburn, scored in the 15th minute from a free kick and then sealed victory with a stolen goal six minutes from the end.

Both teams were playing their second game in two days and Marconi picked up maximum points for the weekend after beating Pan-Hellenic 5-1 24 hours earlier.

The previous week Marconi went down 4-1 to lowly-placed Sutherland, but with Keddie the inspiration in attack, they made amends against Hakoah.

In the second half Hakoah left-winger Hilton Silva was sent off after charging goalkeeper Allan Maher.

Before Silva's dismissal, however, Keddie and schemer Raoul Carrizo had controlled the midfield and Hakoah looked jaded.

Hakoah right full-back Kevin Mullen left his flank exposed as he looked for attacking opportunities and the Marconi centre line used the extra space well.

Marconi's second goal came with Carrizo and Keddie finding more space and feeding speedy midfielder Gary Byrne who netted with a fine angled drive.

Byrne's goal gave Marconi a handy 2-0 lead at half-time and it was only in the last ten minutes that Hakoah looked dangerous.

Graham Honeyman slotted home Hakoah's lone goal when the Marconi defence relaxed near full-time.

Utjesenovic, Wallace, in top form

APIA 0, ST GEORGE 0

The battle for the lead remained unresolved after a tough game between APIA and St George in which neither side budged an inch at Lambert Park.

The game flowed from end to end for the entire 90 minutes and only towards the end did APIA have a slight edge over their opponents.

In the 76th minute APIA mid-fielder Willie Wallace, who had a splendid game, hit a left foot drive which just skirted the bar.

And then just before the end APIA gained a free kick when St George's Brendan Grosse fouled Ken Wilson just outside Saints' penalty box.

It was Wallace again with a low drive that beat the wall. Saints' goalkeeper Martin Coe parried the ball on the drive and APIA's Terry Butler failed by a split second to meet the rebound as the ball ran free.

The best player on the day was Saints' World Cup defender Doug Utjesenovic, who continually set his team in motion.

Unfortunately for the Saints, however, it was not a big day for Atti Abonyi, who spent a great deal of the afternoon in the mid-field without using his creative ball work to take on the APIA defence.

The first half was dominated by APIA's striker John Doyle, but the big forward faded in the second period.

The first real chances went Saints' way when Neville Morgan's curling left foot drive was punched out by APIA goalkeeper David McQuire, after which Grosse hit the upright.

Towards the end of the half APIA was desperately unlucky not to score when World Cup star Jim Rooney broke through and chipped to Wilson who headed down in classic style.

Willie Wallace

Whalley off on stretcher

CROATIA 2 (Whalley, Kovacic), WOLLONGONG 2 (Williams 2)

South Sydney snatched a last-minute two-all draw with a dying rally against Wollongong City at Marks Field.

Defence was the key word in the first half as both teams repulsed all attacks and few scoring chances were created.

The situation brightened in the second half when South Sydney mid-fielder Vernon Darvill lofted a free kick into the goal area where Jeff Whalley headed the ball into the net.

But Whalley collided with the goalkeeper in scoring and was carried off with a dislocated shoulder.

Recent Newcastle signing John Marshall again had an unhappy day in goal for Souths and conceded two goals within five minutes to allow Wollongong to forge to the lead.

Wollongong player-coach Herbie Williams was given both opportunities and made no mistake in whipping the ball past the luckless Marshall.

With one minute remaining, the ball swung along the left line and the final cross found right winger Marin Kovacic on the spot to head home the equaliser.

A nice farewell to Trevor

MATCH OF THE WEEK

HELLAS 4 (Mackay 10th & 41st, Ollerton 60th., Armstrong 89th) RINGWOOD CITY 4 (Kent 11th., 19th. & penalty 55th., Mullett 83rd).

We wondered why Ringwood coach Trevor Owen wasn't on the bench, watching his boys draw 4-4 with one-time glamor team, South Melbourne Hellas.

He provided the answer outside the dressing room after Jim Armstrong had snatched that late goal to give Hellas a lucky point.

Seems Trevor was supposed to have brought the reserve strip to the ground, but forgot.

A few of the officials didn't like it, and said so, so Trevor quit for the second time in as many weeks.

The reserves match, by the way, could not be played.

"Fair enough," said Trevor, "I forgot the strip but I can't be expected to do everything — bring the strips, the balls, the gear coach the team and everything else.

"The attitude of this club is much too amateur."

At least Trevor had the satisfaction of seeing his players do what he had asked of them.

His trump card was winger Chris Kent who had returned from England only a few days earlier.

Kent played very deep and was never marked. For the first of his three goals he slipped through the defence to hammer the ball home from the edge of the area.

Then Mike Lynn beat Arthur Xanthopoulos near the goal line and put the ball square to the middle where Kent headed home without an opponent near him.

Kent's third was a penalty against Steve Walker for a foul on Clive Mullett, who had an excellent game.

Hellas gave Ringwood a lot of help by playing so badly in defence.

Steve Walker was often caught out of position, leaving great gaps in the middle and Xanthopoulos again made costly mistakes.

Walker was replaced in the 59th minute by Chris Kalafatides.

The defence wasn't given much help from the midfield.

Only Jimmy Mackay, who was again outstanding, dropped back to cover.

He can't keep carrying that midfield by himself. Peter Bourne is obviously still suffering from that injury of his, and should be given a week's rest.

Ringwood's good showing was especially praiseworthy because the team lost its key striker John Luyten with a torn stomach muscle as early as the 24th minute.

Apart from Kent and Mullett, Keith Adams also had a good game, making up for his bad one against Slavia.

Newcomer Frank Hoyle had a good debut as left back and Richard Plumb continues to develop into a fine centre back.

Bob Smith found a lot of space in midfield and laid off some good balls. He was another one to benefit from Hellas' failure to mark.

A centre by Bourne set up the chance for Hellas' first goal, and Mackay tapped it in through the legs of goalkeeper Nick van Egmond, shrugging off pressure from Adams and John O'Callaghan.

Kent equalised within seconds and put Ringwood ahead 2-1 eight minutes later.

Hellas stayed in the game with an equaliser just before half time.

Duncan Cummings, too concerned with showing off his tricks instead of running, squared a ball to the middle where Jim Armstrong tapped it on to Peter Ollerton. The big man shot at van Egmond who could only deflect it and Mackay was there to smash it back, into the net.

Hellas had had a few misses, but so had Ringwood, Phil Williamson, who had replaced Luyten, gave Smith a great chance but Smith lobbed over the bar.

In the 52nd minute Ollerton headed against the bar and the rebound was blasted too high by Cummings.

Then Cummings sped out of the pack to meet a cross from Giovanni bbatticciotto but again, his shot was too high.

Four minutes later came the penalty that gave Hellas the lead.

Clive Mullett was breaking through down the left and Walker tackled him — a foul.

Kent took the spot kick. Goal!

Just after Kalafatides had replaced Walker, Ollerton latched onto a long ball and goaled with a shot that bounced off van Egmond. Again, the scores were level.

Howard Andrews came on for Peter Bourne but shortly afterwards Ringwood made it 4-3.

The goal must go to Mullett. He put over a long cross which Mike Lynn went up for but missed. The Hellas players claimed Lynn pushed goalkeeper John Kennedy off balance but the referee ignored the appeal.

Ringwood deserved victory, but it was not to be.

With 90 minutes over, plus a few minutes of injury time, John Daperis sent a cross into the penalty area.

Armstrong let it bounce once, then lashed out at it and volleyed into the net to make it 4-4.

HELLAS: Kennedy; Pye, Walker (Kalafatides 59th), Xanthopoulos, Batticciotto; Daperis, Mackay, Bourne (Andrews 71st); Armstrong, Ollerton, Cummings.
RINGWOOD: van Egmond; Adams, Garthwaite, Plumb, Hoyle; O'Callaghan, Smith; Mullett, Lynn, Luyten (injured, sub. Williamson 24th), Kent. — LAURIE SCHWAB

Joe keeps improving

FOOTSCRAY J.U.S.T. 2 (Kondarios 3rd & 24th) MAKEDONIA 1 (McIntyre 34th).

Joe Palinkas has improved more than 100 per cent since he first joined J.U.S.T. and started benefiting from the coaching of Cedo Cirkovic.

Palinkas rarely had a kick during the early Ampol Cup matches.

Now he's one of the busiest and most dangerous forwards in the league — much better, much more imaginative than he was with Melbourne.

Certainly he was the best forward afield in the J.U.S.T. v. Makedonia match last Sunday.

He had to be! Branko Buljevic was out due to suspension and Mendo Ristovski was off his game.

So Palinkas took over to keep Makedonia's defence busy.

But it was left to Jim Kondarios to score the goals.

Both were headers, and both followed corners by Palinkas — in the 3rd and 24th minutes.

The teams had one good half each. J.U.S.T. was better in the first half, when it built up attacks purposefully and defended well, with young Zoran Ilioski doing excellent covering.

Ilioski was probably the best player afield in that first half.

Makedonia gained confidence after Bill McIntyre had pulled one back in the 34th minute.

The Preston team fought harder and ran faster after the interval.

Wingers Davy Jones on the right, and Stephen Beech on the left, were always dangerous. Beech is a very good player indeed.

But J.U.S.T. soaked up the pressure and won. Jim Kondarios was just too good in defence and goalkeeper Dennis Boland had one of those days when he can't be beaten.

J. U.S.T. lined up without Alan Parrott, who was injured. To cover his absence, Cirkovic had Frank Micic at centre back and Jim Kriaris at right back. Mike Ristic was in Buljevic's place up front.

Makedonia introduced Tommy Fox's brother Alex, 26, who played in Canada for the British Columbia representative team.

J.U.S.T.: Boland; Kriaris, Micic, Kondarios, Kazi; Ilioski, Picioane, Rujevic (Adamgikis 69th); Palinkas, Ristic (Zoraja 57th), Ristovski.
MAKEDONIA: Laumets, Trajkovski, McCracken, Campbell (Presilski 63rd), Pirzas; McIntyre, Petrovski, T. Fox; Jones, A. Fox (Stojanovski 55th) Beech.

Bernard starts the rout

SUNSHINE 3 (Bernard 4th, Petrov 50th, McRoberts 80th) POLONIA 1 (W. Klain 21st).

Sunshine's new recruit, John Bernard from Scotland, had to pass a fitness test before being allowed to take his place in the team for Sunday's game against Polonia.

Four minutes into the game, Bernard placed a long curling shot into the net and sent Sunshine — the new glamor side of the State League — on to its merry winning way.

Sunshine, 3-1 conqueror of South Melbourne Hellas the week before, could not have lost the match if it wanted to.

Bernard, who had a calf muscle complaint, had been receiving acupuncture treatment to overcome it.

His goal was the start of a disastrous day for Polonia goalkeeper Zbig Szalinski, who could not handle the ball cleanly.

Polonia went in at half time with the score at 1-1, after Wally Klain had levelled at the 21 minute mark.

But, as is often the case with the team in the opening minutes of the second half, Sunshine came out revitalised, and whitewashed a helpless Polonia.

A lot of its drive came from defenders Peter Lewis and Steve Kokoska, and in the attacking area Chris Petrov and Tommy Cumming did not stop running and thinking for a single second.

Five minutes into the second half the Cumming - Petrov combination clinched the match.

The minute Scotsman headed a ball, kicked it on, chased and accurately chipped it back to where Petrov dazzled defenders with an accurate left foot shot.

Szalinski's judgment was questionable, to say the least.

Sunshine had the play in its forward line often and its success came from moving the ball around quickly.

Its goalkeeper Bill Johnson who was used sparingly, could be excused for complaining of goose pimples.

Polonia's sole second half scoring chance came when Ralph Esposito sprinted 40 metres down the flank and passed to his playing coach, Eugene Lerch, whose overhead snap was stopped.

The game was so easy that on siren time, Jim McRobert gathered the ball, steadied, and from 40 metres out kicked a goal.

SUNSHINE: Johnson, Lewis, Kokoska, Mussell, Howe, McCarthy, Petrov, Bernard, Cumming, Piotrowski, McRobert.
POLONIA: Szalinski, Dziedzic, Jaworski, S. Klain, Klimecki, Nierobisz, Lerch, Kupisz, W. Klain, [illegible]

Tansey strikes again

SLAVIA 4 (Patten, Pinakos 2, Tansey) GEORGE CROSS 0.

Magical Jim Tansey! He should be playing as sweeper in the Australian team.

That's the belief of Slavia coach Ken Kontra, after watching Tansey dominate his side's 4-0 win over George Cross.

Kontra said: "Jim Tanzey has the makings to become an Australian Beckenbauer. He is head and shoulders above most players.

"He makes good position and has good ball sense.

"On Saturday Tansey marshalled the defence and did what a good sweeper should do occasionally — come from behind and score."

Everything went well for Slavia.

It played well earlier in the year, but failed to find the net.

Saturday was a completely different story and Slavia had three goals on the board by half time.

The two man attack of John Patten and Bill Pinakes ran riot in the George Cross defence.

Jim Symington controlled the midfield area and he worked in well with defenders Les Owens and Frank Thompson.

John Webb and Kevin Walker were two of the better players for George Cross.

The overall performance of George Cross was disgraceful.

The side has potential but is playing pathetic soccer, as most players don't appear to have their hearts in the right place.

SLAVIA: Whiteside; Owens, McCombe, Tansey, Thompson; Train, O'Reilly, Symington, Moore; Patten, Pinakes.
GEORGE CROSS: Kastner; McConville, Jones (sent off), Deeming, Maitland, Webb, Doolan, Murphy, Walker, Barron, Kelly (Grand replaced Doolan at [illegible]

Sigh of relief

ALEXANDER 3 (Cole 2 inc. penalty, Gillan) MOOROOLBARK 1 (French).

Alexander returned to the sparkling form that won it a position in the Ampol Cup final, by downing Mooroolbark 3-1 at Mooroolbark on Sunday.

The side's performance brought a sigh of relief from coach Jack Reilly.

Mooroolbark's performance was an extremely poor one, considering it was playing at home and Alexander has been well down on form.

Reilly described his team's effort as a "solid" showing, with a special emphasis on teamwork.

He added: "Last week we were not desperate enought in the penalty box, but this was completely different on Sunday.

"Our players are all fit and there's no reason why we shouldn't play to our best ability in the coming matches.

"We now meet an improving Juventus team in the next round and will have to play well there."

ALEXANDER: Blasby; V. Bannon, Bozikas, Nelson, Stogiannou; Webster (Racovalis 55th), P. Bannon, Gibson; Cole, Gillan, Nicholaides.
MOOROOLBARK: Coville; Haywood (O'Toole 35th), Vaughan, Plumkett, Williamson; Sinclair, Rigby, Pongho; Ontong, French, Clarey.

Henderson is fuming

JUVENTUS 1 (J. Lucchesi) HAKOAH 0.

Juventus showed it's on the way back, with a 1-0 win over Hakoah at Olympic Park on Sunday.

Hakoah fans believe one man — referee Sam Zoumas — robbed it of victory.

Hakoah coach Sandy Henderson — a brother of referee Bob Henderson — described the decisions of Zoumas as "sickening".

He said: "We were crucified. I wouldn't have believed it had I not been there. We have had the same trouble with this guy before.

"Our club will be sending in a complaint to the Federation about his performance."

Hakoah lost three key players, two sent off and one injured, during its attempt to down Juventus.

Dan Lukic and Jean Durand were ordered from the field for back chatting and Steve Gadsby was carried off with a gashed leg.

Hakoah finished the match with nine players.

A masterly midfield display by Ian Marshall and a stirring half time speech by new coach Milenke Rusmir lifted Juventus, and it went on to pick up two points.

The winning goal was scored by John Lucchesi after good teaming with his brother Claude and Bruno Sabidussi.

Juventus lost two of its name players by half time.

Ulysses Kokkinos came off at the 35th minute after bruising a shin, and German import Uli Pfisterer limped off with an ankle injury.

How good was the win of Juventus? It couldn't have been too meritorious as Hakoah lost three of its best players and was well below top strength.

The answer will be known in three weeks after Juventus meets Alexander and Sunshine.

JUVENTUS: Harby; Bonfieni, Della Rocca, Baravelli, Sabadini; C. Lucchesi, Marshall, Sabidussi; Pfisterer, Kokkinos, J. Lucchesi. (Brooks replaced Kokkinos after 35 minutes and Gilpin came on for Pfisterer at half time).
HAKOAH: O'Hara; Hammond, Durand (off), Jordanou, Baker, Doeen, Blair, Lukic (off), Gadsby, Fraser, Donato. (Nechveglad replaced Gadsby at half time and he was replaced at the 75th minute by Roberts).

JIM NEIGHBOUR, (forward). 5ft. 7in. Born at Chingford, where he attended Heathcote Secondary Modern School. Played for Waltham Forest, Essex and London Boys. Signed full professional forms for Spurs in November, 1968, having joined the club as an apprentice in April, 1966. Was a member of our Football League Cup-winning team against Aston Villa in 1971. He made more than 90 League, scoring five goals. He has also appeared in 26 major cup-ties, scoring twice.

JOHN DUNCAN

JOHN DUNCAN, (forward). 5ft. 10in. Joined Spurs from Dundee. Born in Dundee, where he attended Clepington Road School and Morgan Academy. Played for Dundee Schools Under-15s and after Dundee had signed him on a provisional form, he was "farmed" out to Broughty Athletic for development. Made his debut for Spurs at Luton, and finished the season as top scorer with 12 goals from 28 League games. Played for Scottish League against the Football League in 1973, toured Australia with Dundee in 1973.

RALPH COATES, (forward). 5ft. 7in. Has played four times for the full England team. Born at Hetton-le-Hole, County Durham, and joined Spurs from Burnley in May, 1971. Played as a striker for Eppleton Colliery Welfare Juniors before joining Burnley. Scored Spurs' League Cup-winning goal against Norwich City at Wembley in 1973. Has scored 9 goals in about 150 League appearances for Spurs, and 10 goals in 49 major cup appearances.

CHRIS JONES

CHRIS JONES, (forward). 5ft. 11in. Made his League debut for Spurs on the opening day of the 1974-75 season and finished the campaign with 16 First Division appearances and one goal. Born in Jersey and established himself in schools football in the Channel Islands. Signed for Spurs as an apprentice in May, 1971 and was upgraded to full professional in May, 1973.

MARTIN CHIVERS

MARTIN CHIVERS, (forward). 6ft. 1in. Has made 24 appearances in the full England team. Born at Southampton and played for the Southampton and Hampshire Country Boys team. Signed as a professional for Southampton and made his League debut in the Second Division in season 1962-63. Transferred from Southampton to Spurs in January, 1968, and scored the winning goal in his debut on Sheffield Wednesday's ground a few days later. Has made about 300 League appearances for Spurs and scored about 120 First Division goals. His total of appearances for Spurs in major cup competitions is 83 and his goals tally is 54.

TERRY NEILL

TERRY NEILL, manager. Terry Neill was born in Belfast. He played for Bangor City before joining Arsenal at the age of 17. In Dec., 1959. Terry gained a regular place in the Gunner's side, totalling 241 Legue games. Illness and injury kept him out of two League Cup Finals. He made four appearances for Ireland Under-23, and over a period from 1961 to 1973 was capped 59 times at full international level (44 whilst at Highbury, and the remaining 15 after he joined Hull City). Whilst a player he was also a coach, commencing with schools in North London. He worked with the Irish F.A. on several courses, and had two years coaching Cambridge University, in succession to Malcolm Allison. Terry followed notable predecessors into the post of Chairman of the Professional Footballers' Association, and also helped to raise funds for the Great Ormond Street Children's Hospital, London. He went to Hull City as player-manager in the summer of 1970, and at that time was the youngest manager in the League. After a further 103 League games for City, he became Spurs' manager, in succession to Billy Nicholson on 11th September 1974. He also managed the Northern Ireland international team for several matches.

Glory in the twilight of his career

LONDON. — Southampton's 1-0 win over Manchester United in the English Football Association Cup final was a surprise to most people. To Peter Rodrigues, the Southampton captain, it was much more.

Within the past 12 months he must have considered giving up football.

Rodrigues was given a free transfer by Sheffield Wednesday when the Yorkshire club was relegated from the Second Division to Third Division at the end of last season. His career as a full-time professional footballer looked over.

But after the exciting final at Wembley Stadium, it was Rodrigues who took the FA Cup from Queen Elizabeth and then led his Second Division team on a lap of honor in front of the 100,000 crowd.

Rodrigues' career had been salvaged by Southampton and he had responded with a sterling performance in the defence which crushed Manchester's youthful, attacking spirit.

Manchester United's "Red army" of supporters beat a retreat from Wembley with some of them in tears.

The team's shock defeat stunned the thousands of United fans who only two hours earlier had been confident of victory.

Some hurled their banners and rosettes on the ground in disgust.

As they trooped away from the stadium, their mood was silent and sullen.

In Southampton the parties continued through the night as the town went wild celebrating.

Ships in the harbour joined in a victory salute with their sirens, and hotels reported their busiest times since VE-

United loss would turn London into a battlefield, police reported a quiet evening.

Sixty-two fans were arrested in London, most of them in the Wembley area.

Police said fans of both teams faced charges including threatening behaviour, being drunk and disorderly, possession of offensive weapons and theft.

The experts had said Southampton could not win if Manchester United sent down their youth side.

But Southampton did and stunned the British football public.

It was only the third time in FA Cup history that a Second Division team has carried off the Cup.

For the Saints the magic moment came in the 83rd minute. Little-known forward Bobby Stokes slammed into the net the only ball to pass goalkeeper Alex Stepney all day.

By the time the Southampton goal came,

After surviving the furious pace set by the northerners in the first half, Southampton wrested the initiative from their opponents in the second session.

It was then that the experience of the Southampton forwards Mike Channon, Jim McCalliog and Peter Osgood emerged — to the detriment of Manchester.

It was a perfect ball across the pitch from McCalliog that set the move in motion for Stokes' goal.

Several United fans and some players asked the linesman for an off-side ruling.

But television replays showed that Stokes had at least one, if not two defenders between him and the goalkeeper when the pass was struck.

Later joyous Southampton manager Laurie McMenemy, the quiet man of football, said: "I knew we not score against us in the first 45 minutes, there was no way they would in the next half."

Throughout the FA Cup build-up McMenemy remained in the background, quietly telling players they could pull off a shock.

The feeling of the huge Manchester contingent was probably best displayed by defender Brian Greenhoff after the match.

As he left the pitch, Greenhoff had to use his soiled shirt to wipe away the tears streaming down his cheeks.

He then clasped his hands in his face to hide his embarrassment as manager Tommy Docherty came forward with a comforting arm.

Asked if his side played below their best, Docherty said: "I don't want to answer that because I don't want to take credit away from Southampton.

"We did our best but it

BROKEN-HEARTED

GLASGOW. — Rangers beat Hearts 3-1 at Hampden Park to add the Scottish Football Association Cup to the league championship and league cup which they had already won.

Hearts were given no chance by Rangers' power play.

They were a goal down in only 41 seconds, trailed 0-2 at half time and went three goals behind before they got a late consolation score.

Tall striker Derek Johnstone headed Rangers into their first-minute lead from a free kick taken by Tommy McLean.

Alex MacDonald put them further ahead a minute before the half-time whistle with a low 20-yard shot which had Hearts goalkeeper Cruickshank beaten all the way, and Johnstone got his second, and Rangers' third, in the 81st minute.

Hearts were thoroughly beaten by then, but two minutes later Shaw was presented with a gift goal when Rangers' defender Forsyth mistimed a pass back.

A crowd of 85,254 watched the match.

Five players were booked during the game — Hamilton, Miller and Jackson of Rangers and Burrell and Jeffries of Hearts.

Though Rangers always looked the superior team, Hearts had chances to make a tighter fight of it.

In the first half Prentice shot narrowly over the bar after running onto a low cross from Jim Brown, with the Rangers defenders making no move.

A shot from John Gallaher in the 50th minute looked destined to finish in the net, but Rangers defender John Greig headed off the line.

Hamilton lobbed the ball just wide for Rangers in the ninth minute and later in the first half Bobby McKean had an

IT'S A WASTE OF ENERGY!

A Spanish magazine has investigated the training done by Spanish clubs.

Its findings are revealing. The hardest-working First Division side are Real Oviedo, whose players do a total of 11 hours 40 minutes work each week, including the 90 minutes for the Sunday match.

Ironically, they are two from bottom of the League!

Spain's big three—Real and Atletico of Madrid and Barcelona — do 9¾, 9¼ and eight hours respectively, again including a match; plus a sauna/massage during each Friday.

Spain's "slackers" are Barcelona's neighbours, Espanol, who put in just four and a half hours training each week.

Their trainer, Santamaria, says: "I like my players to conserve their energy for match days."

As Espanol pay good wages plus an average of $650 for a win, their players' earnings are about $2 a minute!

Apparently, British and Eastern European teams train between 12 and 14 hours a week; Inter-Milan put in seven hours, while European Champions Bayern Munich train for 10½ hours.

JIM SHOULDER
National coach

These two will go to the top

Two players who stood out in matches I saw last week are Arthur Xanthopoulos of South Melbourne Hellas and John Kosmina who played for South Australia against Victoria in Adelaide.

JOHN KOSMINA
(Polonia, Adelaide)

ARTHUR XANTHOPOULOS
(SM-Hellas)

Both are young and both look like they could mature into very good players indeed if they are handled properly.

I will probably include both in my national B squad, along with fellows like Mendo Ristovski (JUST) and Peter Stone (Wests).

I had seen Xanthopoulos and Kosmina play before and their performances in the Victoria v South Australia match simply confirmed my good opinion of them.

Xanthopoulos may not have played well in the Hellas v. Sunshine match which I saw in Melbourne on the Saturday, but then none of the Hellas players had a good game.

In Adelaide, on the other hand, Xanthopoulos was the best man on the field.

Obviously, his position is in the back, not in midfield, where Victorian coach Bobby McLachlan was forced to play him in the second half.

Xanthopoulos reads the game well and of the players I've seen in Australia he's the closest in style to Bobby Moore.

Many sweepers in Australia can't use the ball to advantage. Xanthopoulos can.

This is important for a sweeper, because he gets a lot of the ball with no opponent near him, which presents him with the opportunity to play the good, creative ball, and he must be able to do so.

If Xanthopoulos has one shortcoming it is that, in a one against one situation, he tends to over-commit himself. Also, he covers from too far away.

When the right back, for example, goes to meet a challenge, Xanthopoulos doesn't move in to cover closely enough.

If the forward gets past the right back, Xanthopoulos is left with too much ground to make up.

Certainly, Xanthopoulos can tackle. He has good technique and thighs like tree trunks. He's not tall, but he's not bad in the air.

His stocky, powerful build makes him a little reminiscent of England's Colin Todd.

However, Xanthopoulos is not as mobile, although he's by no means slow.

The times I've seen him play best were the times he's had to take control. With even better players around him and in bigger occasions, he would show up even more.

As far as sweepers go, Peter Wilson would be superior in covering and tackling, but Xanthopoulos is better in using the ball.

I've heard a lot about Jim Tansey's play in the sweeper position and I intend to have a close look at him. He apparently has the same sort of qualities as Xanthopoulos.

I was most impressed by Steve Kokoska of Sunshine City, who had a blinder against Hellas.

He tackled hard, won every ball in the air and didn't put a foot wrong but I don't know much about this player and I'd want to watch him a few more times before we start talking in terms of the national squad.

The other player I want to talk about is John Kosmina.

The Victoria v. South Australia clash was a bad game, but even though he didn't get the right service, Kosmina looked more than useful up front.

He was making the type of runs that top-class players alongside him would really appreciate.

His shortcoming was that when the ball come to the penalty area, he moved towards the ball, thus clogging up play, rather than peeling away, to open up space. It's the old problem of following the ball.

But Kosmina, 19, is strong, quick and his goal record in Adelaide speaks for itself.

He holds the ball well when it comes out of defence, and he breaks quickly.

Kosmina is powerfully built, about 5ft. 9in. and 11½ stone. With a bit of polish he'll be first-class.

I'll continue looking at promising players throughout Australia.

The Tasmanian coaching drector, Dennis Ford, has drawn my attention to a forward from Hobart, called Tom McKenna.

I'll be having a look at him when I get the oportunity.

I've been asked who my assistant coach will be.

I've got one picked out, but I won't make the official announcement until next week.

Big names in Army team

Sunderland's itinerary is:.

v Queensland, Sunday, May 16, in Brisbane

v. Australian XI, Wednesday, May 19, in Sydney

v. Northern NSW, Sunday, May 23, in Newcastle

v. Australian XI, Tuesday, May 25, in Melbourne

v. South Australia, Thursday, May 27, in Adelaide

v. Western Australia, Sunday, May 30, in Perth.

The Italian Army team, featuring players like Conti (Genoa), D'Amico (Lazio), Tancredi (Milan), Bini (Inter Milan), Sala (Torino) and Pruzzo (Genoa), will start its tour in Sydney, probably against an Australian XI.

The tentative date for the game is Wednesday, June 2.

The Army team will play against Victoria in Melbourne, probably on Wednesday, June 9.

Games are being offered also to South Australia, Western Australia and Northern NSW.

Bologna will be the last, but probably most popular of the visiting teams.

The Italians in Australia haven't had a soccer team visiting from home since Roma set attendance records here in 1966.

The Victoria v. Roma match drew 35,861 people to Olympic Park, and that still stands as a record for the ground.

Bologna's programme is:

v. Victoria, Sunday, June 13, in Melbourne

v. Australian XI, Wednesday, June 16, in Adelaide

v. Australian XI, Sunday, June 20, in Sydney

v. Western Australia, Wednesday, June 23, in Perth.

Bologna is the most expensive of the visiting teams, charging a match fee of about $20,000.

LIVERPOOL BATTLES THE ODDS

Liverpool is behind the eight-ball going into the second leg of the UEFA (European Football Union) Cup final.

Liverpool came from behind to beat Bruges of Belgium 3-2 in Liverpool and now goes to Belgium at a big disadvantage, as Bruges' two goals in Liverpool count double.

That means, if Bruges wins by almost any score at home, it will take the Cup.

The second leg will be played in Bruges on May 19.

In the first leg, Liverpool rallied after conceding two goals in the first 12 minutes. Trailing 0-2 at halftime, Liverpool came out full of fight for the second half and shocked Bruges by scoring three times in five minutes, to the delight of a crowd of nearly 50,000.

Ray Kennedy scored with a left-foot shot from 20 metres in the 59th minute, substitute Jimmy Case equalised two minutes later after a shot from Kennedy had rebounded off an upright and Kevin Keegan got the winner from the penalty spot in the 64th minute.

The penalty was awarded when Steve Heighway was tripped by Bruges defender Bastijns.

Bruges had seemed well on the way to victory after their tremendous start.

In the fifth minute, Belgian international Lambert gave them the lead by nipping in to score from a bad back pass by Liverpool defender Phil Neal. Seven minutes later lambert headed down a cross from the right for Cools to score the second goal with a fierce shot. — AAP-Reuter

Kevin Keegan

'Each toe worth 100 million'

When Guiseppe Savoldi switched from Bologna to Napoli for about $2,450,000 he became the most expensive footballer in history. In this interview he talks about his big price tag, his new club and Italian soccer in general.

Guiseppe Savoldi

Q. Guiseppe Savoldi, you are the most expensive footballer of all time — how does it feel?

SAVOLDI: It feels no different, I'm still flesh and blood like everyone else, but it has brought a few jokes from my old team-mates at Bologna. When they heard the news, we had just finished training and were in the shower. My feet were sticking out from underneath the door, you know, and one of them, I FORGET WHO, SAID, "Look over there, fellows, there's Beppe's two big toes — do you know, each of them is worth one hundred million lira"!

Q. But surely the publicity is going to affect you in some way?

SAVOLDI: I'm determined it won't. I am what I am and putting a two million dollar price tag on me won't help me to run faster, jump higher or shoot straighter.

Q. With Italy in the midst of an economic crisis rather like Britain, and Italian football clubs owing millions and millions of dollars, how can they justify spending such a big sum on one player?

SAVOLDI: That's a question you would have to put to the Napoli directors, not to me. All I did was put my signature on a contract. If I had refused to sign on the grounds it would worsen the country's economic problems, everyone would have been sure I was mad.

Q. But by all accounts you are going to get about $80,000 in salary in the first year — how can you feel that kind of money is justified?

SAVOLDI: In the first place, I can tell you it's nowhere near as much as that, although I am not going to tell you the correct amount. Secondly, what I have been promised is spread over three years. Thirdly, a great deal of the money will go in taxes.

Q. But deep down, Beppe, doesn't a transfer fee of $2.4 million, seem absolute madness to you?

SAVOLDI: I'm no accountant, but I do know the sum of money that's actually changed hands has been very much less than that. The figure you've just quoted is based partly on the valuation of the two players Napoli gave in partexchange, which was grossly inflated in my opinion. And as you probably realise, the last thing any club wants to do is to keep the profit it's made during a season in the bank, because that way it will only go to the Government in taxes.

Q. Why do you think you've had so little success as an international player, Beppe, all the while you've been with Bologna?

SAVOLDI: Every team-manager has his prejudices, and I can only assume up until last season, I just didn't seem to be the player the old coach Valcareggi wanted to wear the number nine shirt. Also, for a long while the Italian team was doing very well without me — finishing runners-up to Brazil in Mexico, and then having that long run without defeat or even a goal being conceded back in Europe. Also Anastasi and Chinaglia have always played very well for Italy and centre-forward, so there was no place for me.

Q. But you've always been a very consistent goalscorer for Bologna?

SAVOLDI: Consistent, yes, but the 15 goals I scored last season, which was above my average, wasn't enough for me to displace someone playing well for the national side — at least until the second half of the season. It's difficult to put across to your readers just how difficult it is in Italian football for someone to score. You get absolutely no space at all, and if you do get away a few times and get a goal, the word soon gets around and for the next few matches you're shadowed everywhere. You also have to be pretty tough, physically, to take the knocks in the penalty-area.

Q. In your opinion, is the defensive football in Italy the reason for their decline at national level?

SAVOLDI: Not entirely, because we did do well in the 1970 World Cup and our club sides have always made in impact in European club competitions. But obviously when it's such a hard life as a striker, Star Juventus player Bill Vojtek is doing something he hates — having to watch his side play from outside the fence.

A strained achilles has prevented Vojtek from playing in all but two State League matches this season.

Next week's Startalk guest is Ray Richards of Marconi-Fairfield. Send questions to "Startalk", Soccer Action, 250 Spencer Street, Melbourne.

Q: When do you plan to be playing again? (Question by Frank Webster, Ferntree Gully Road, Scoresby, Vic).

A: I hope to be fit enough for our game against Alexander next weekend. I would love to be playing in the Victorian side against Tottenham Hotspur on Sunday, but I'm just not fit.

A doctor is giving me treatment and the leg is slowly improving. It's the type of injury that needs rest. We play Sunshine after Alexander and these are two very important matches for us. My aim is to play against Bologna at Olympic Park next month.

Q: What do you think of the Victorian squad picked to play against Tottenham? (Question by Ian Van Twest, Whitehorse Road, Nunawading.)

A: Victoria will give a good display against Tottenham as it traditionally does against visiting English teams; but we're playing against a professional outfit that will win by three goals.

I hope every Victorian player that takes the field is fully fit. Everybody must be honest, as it's a big thing. This was not the case in Adelaide last week. Victoria should be able to pick a side that would beat South Australia at any time or any day.

Q: Are you superstitious and do you have any funny habits? (Question by Spiro Angelo, Bell Street, Coburg, Vic.)

A: Yes I am superstitious. I must have my gear all ready long before I leave home. I do the same thing every week. For the past three years I have worn the same pair of shorts.

Whether it's to go to training or a match I always make sure my gear is ready, and take along four pairs of boots.

Q: What other sports to you play? (Question by Alan Julien, Castlereagh Road, Penrith, NSW.)

A: Tennis is my favorite outside sport — I play it all the time during the summer. I also play backyard cricket, and both keep me fit for soccer.

The morning after a match I usually go for an hour-long jog to get rid of any stiffness and soreness in my body.

Q: Can youngsters learn anything from watching the soccer on television? (Question by Dick Browne, Bondi Road, Bondi, NSW.)

A: Yes they certainly can. They can learn a great deal by watching the television.

APATHY BY CLUBS

Junior soccer clubs in Victoria and NSW have shown amazing apathy to publicity. We have repeatedly called — no, pleaded — for pictures and stories about junior players. Only a handful of clubs have responded. So, here goes again — We want pictures and two, or three-line stories about talented youngsters wherever they may be. On the basis of such information we may even be able to organsie prizes for kids. Send information to Soccer Action, 250 Spencer Street, Melbourne.

PASSING

Wall-Passing is an excellent method of getting past an opponent and is described in Fig. 1.

Attacker A1 plays the ball to attacker A2 and sprints past Defender D1, to collect the return pass from attacker A2.

To excute the wall-pass effectively the following points should be remembered, by the player with the ball.

1. Approach the defender quickly and be fairly close to him before passing the ball.
2. When passing to the right side of the defender, use the right foot in preference to the left foot, to reduce the defender's chances of intercepting the pass.
3. Sprint past the defender once the pass has been made.

Other attacking players should try to remember the following points.

1. Make good passing angles.
   In Fig. 2. the pass from A1 to A2 will travel very close to defender D1, if A1 attempts the wall-pass. In this case the defender will have a good chance of blocking the pass.
   In Fig. 3 the pass from A1 to A2 will be well away from the defender and his chances of intercepting the ball will be very small. The position of A2 also creates more space behind the defender D1.
2. Move to meet the pass.
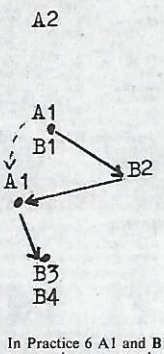
   In Fig. 4 A2 is not moving and he gives defender D2 a better chance of reading the play and intercepting the pass from A1, or getting a challenge on A2.

Diag. 1

In Fig. 5 A2 has timed his run to be in a good position and meet the pass from A1. This is much better as defender D2 will be hard pressed to intercept or challenge A2 for the ball.

Diag. 2



In Practice 6 A1 and B1 approach one another while B2 moves to present himself for a pass from A1.

A1 may either dribble or make a wall-pass to beat B1, who has to try to win the ball. A1 then passes the ball to B3 who starts the practice again.

Diag. 3

The practice may be made more difficult by introducing B3 as a defender against B2. The practice then becomes 2v2.

VALLEY TRIALS

Boys under 12, who live in the Gippsland area, have the big chance to represent a league.

The Latrobe Valley League is looking for boys under 12 to join its squad for selection matches.

Club secretaries can nominate players to the squad by ringing Mrs. I. Rees, P.O. Box 56 Traralgon or phoning 743 958 after 5p.m.

Members of last year's under 11 squad have qualified for selection matches.

Ref's course

A referee's course — designed to attract referees for junior matches — will begin next Wednesday.

The course will be held at Olympic Park, off Liberty Parade, West Heidelberg.

It will be between 7.30 and 9.30 p.m.

Referees are urgently needed for the junior devision.

Anyone interested in attending the course should contact B. Finnegan 328 0431.

OFF TO NZ

Interstate and overseas tours are usually associated with senior sides.

But the Mossfiel Rangers compete in the moves around just as frequently as its idols do.

A party of 16 players, 12 parents and two officials will fly to New Zealand on Monday and return on Thursday May 20.

Sides from Mossfiel Rangers nompete in the Lalor section of the Victorian Junior League.

The Petone Soccer Club of Wellington will act as host during Mossfiel's 10-day visit.

Mossfiel will play eight matches while it is in New Zealand.

The club was formed five years ago and has travelled interstate every year, but this will be the first time it's been outside Australia.

If this tour is a success, the club will probably organise a tour of the United Kingdom within the next two years.

Goals galore

Tim Smith, who is having an excellent first season in soccer, is pictured showing his style during a recent game.

Smith is a prolific goalscoring member of the Meadow Park under 10 team.

Meadow Park has started the new season on a high note.

The under nine and under 10 sides will be very hard to beat this year.

The under nine side recently beat Coburg 6-0 with newcomer Joe Novella booting three goals in his first match.

Other scorers were Marie Orlando, Sean Downer and Jeremy Cackett with Craig Else and Darren Free strong six goals in each half to swamp Moreland B.

Goalscorers were: Frank Matahlija 5, Mike Deehan 3, Tim Smith 2, Rob Carroll and Andy Coovmans.

Meadow Park plays in the

"COACH YOURSELF

FOOTBALL COACH YOURSELF

Allen Wade — an official publication of the Football Association.

Used and recommended by Mr Ron Smith
Director of Coaching, Victorian Soccer Federation.

We often hear the expression "practice makes perfect". But how many of us have almost worked ourself to death in practice when perfection has seemed to be further away than ever?

Practice will only bring about improvement if it is of the right kind and supplemented by understanding. More than ever before, success in football demands thinking players and all round players who have mastered the games full complement of skills. The ideas which this book presents to trainers; coaches and young players are those which have been developed by the top coaches in England over the years. We know that they will stand you in good stead whatever your involvement in the game. The author, Allen Wade, is the director of Coaching of the Football Association, England.

How to conquer Asia and reach Argentina

KNUT WERNER

Isn't Laurie Schwab a doomsday monger? That negative headline last week, that bleak prediction, that dereliction, that woe-is-us, this-is-the-end lament. Have no fear. The savior hath come. Relief is on the way, the bugle has bugled, the cavalry has mounted, my pen is poised.

I am about to make available my vast knowledge of psychological warfare and all-round dirty tactics.

Armed with this armada of guile and subterfuge, we will dictate the outcome of the Asian World Cup qualifying series and we will reach Argentina.

I am not saying that if we put the shoulder to the wheel I will put my nose to the grind-stone (I require the bridge of my nose for the sun-glasses), but I will pit myself against this insidious anti-Oz FIFA chap.

Firstly we can see the type of under-handed ploy this anti-Sunburned Country demon has thrust upon us by his vile toying with the geography of the world.

Taiwan has been placed in Oceania for the qualifying series while Israel has been shifted into Asia.

No wonder Taiwan lays claims to our prawns.

And what of poor Moses. He must be turning in his Old Testament to learn that after 40 years of searching he still didn't find the Middle East.

I have a suspicion here that there is a bit of financial sculduggery afoot.

Group one, consisting of Hong Kong, Indonesia, Malaysia, Thailand, Singapore and Sri Lanka (where the teas that please used to come from), are within a stone's throw of each other.

So, the cost of these competitions are minimal and as they eat the same food, their rice can be bulk purchased.

North Korea, South Korea and Japan can play each other off by row-boat, while Israel is forced to take a world trip away from the Wailing Wall, unless Charlton Heston can do something with the Indian Ocean and allow them to economise by the use of a bus.

So much for group two.

Group three and group four are also in spitting distance of each other. And it wouldn't surprise me one bit!

Now, group four is a real lu-lu. It contains Emirates and something called Qatar.

Who in Holy travelogues has ever heard of Emirates and Qatar?

One sounds like a character from a Greek trilogy by Sophocles and the other like those little particles physicists find in atoms.

Seeing that Oceania contains only three members, they might as well add Cocos Islands. I can personally finance the inclusion of that one with my old poker chips.

Then we are told that no one wants to play Israel and Australia has to play everybody.

But not to worry, here is where I introduce my Machiavellian manoeuvres.

They may try to cover their dastardly connivance by attempting to get us to play Israel first in the hope that we eliminate that team and spare them some embarrassment.

Israel will present us with no problem at all.

We play Israel on Yom Kippur and on Yom Kippur only! How can they possibly stand up to our onslaught when they are dropping from starvation weakness?

What a strategist I am! Is there no end to my blackness? What a general! Call me any time, Jim.

Beware Bahrain, quiver Kuwait I have your downfall finalised.

Secreting myself outside the stadium and awaiting the word from Worthington at the appropriate moment, my cry will echo: "By Allah! the pipeline has sprung a leak."

What team can continue to concentrate with the fear of a return to dirt farming hovering ominously in their minds?

And, with a bit of luck, we might even see 11 players whipping off their shirts as they run from the stadium shouting "Let's plugga da hole, let's plugga da hole".

Actually most of the Moslem countries will not be problematic.

With the help of God and a good compass we can walk all over these contenders.

Making sure that the venue of our encounter is a pitch facing east-west, our problem is instantaneously solved.

There are two methods to be employed here.

Method one incorporates the put-off tactic. In this we use every available opportunity to delay the start of the game for as long as possible.

We can use such legitimate items as national anthems.

First we play that of the guest team and then we hit them with the 20 or 30 representing Australia. This will be good for at least an hour and a half.

After the recording is so worn that both sides can be played at once, we mobilise phase two. This is the there's - a - bomb - in - the stadium, everybody-out" ruse. Good for at least another 30 minutes. The use of these tactics will clarify itself further on.

There is also: "We can't find a penny for the toss". Good for 10 minutes or so.

Method two utilises to perfection a propaganda exercise already known to all soccer players.

If you fall down, stay down and writhe. Let's see, 11 players, eight minutes per player. There's another gain of about 90 minutes.

There is an alternate possibility, but this requires a referendum on day-lighty losing and is therefore not viable.

Now the reason for all this becomes obvious at sunset, the traditional time of Moslem prayer.

During a westward bound attack the Australian squad in unison hollers "Allah be praised!"

And while the Moslem defence, facing east, the traditional direction of prayer, kiss the ground, we, out of their sight-line, score magnificently.

Of course this can also be used by our defence when being threatened.

wave of the hand followed by: We don't recognise you, you don't exist, you're nobodies.

Who ever heard of an Iranian rug?

Our match is against Persia.

Equally, we can avoid playing the character and the atom.

Well, FIFA, we tried as hard as we could to encounter Emirates and Qatar but we couldn't find where they lived.

Anyway, how could we possibly get our entire squad into the Qatar airlines biplane?

Having always suffered the problem that to me all soccer players look alike (a despair shared by government clerks and the American negro), this can be used to our advantage against the two Koreans.

How do we know we are playing the South Korean team? How do we know we are playing the North Korean team?

I mean, they could be the same team. They could be using 22 players.

How do we know what's come out of the dressing room after half time?

So you see, Mr. Schwab, all problems and would-be set-backs are surmountable with the right man for the job. You must be positive.

Remember what they once said to the desert fox: "Okay, the place is yours, but what are you going to eat?"

P.S. On a personal note, may I say that there has been a restoration of my faith in the intellect of mankind.

There is among us a human being of grace, taste, perception and Solomonian priorities.

I am referring to a gentle lady, a lady capable of ethereal inspiration, a goddess in a thorny world, a lady with the exquisite elegance to request a full-colour poster of yours truly, through Marilyn's column last week.

Gina Martin, I humble myself before you.

Broken bar stops the match

Not having covered a Second Division match this season, Metro's Match of the Day decided to visit Ross Reserve, Springvale, for City's game against Brighton.

The ground, one of the best in the V.S.F. to play on, looked as good as ever, and Springvale opened in spritely style, in fact it dominated the opening 10 minutes.

At the 11 minute mark a good Springvale corner caught the Brighton defence flat-footed and George Eadie in attempting to head away, hit his own cross-bar and then the upright, from where the ball bounced to Hugh Campbell who banged it home.

Moments of peril followed for Brighton and Alan Lion did well to head off the line a good attempt by Jackie Gollan, followed up by a rocketing shot from outside the box by Robert Adam.

In what was virtually Brighton's first attack, Jim Williams won a corner, and as the corner came over Peter Mur in the Springvale goal, jumped to tip it over and in doing so broke the crossbar.

Valiant attempts were made by Springvale officials to repair it but all to no avail and eventually the referee had perforce to abandon the game.

So what had started out as a tragedy for Brighton ended in comedy for it, and bad luck to Springvale.

After a hectic dash, Match of the Day arrived somewhat breathless at Sixth Avenue, Waverley, for the second half of the Waverley City v. Keilor City game.

One sided game

Match of the week

Waverley City 5 (Whitehurst 2, Ford, McCullough, Humble) Keilor City 1 (Sharp o.g.).

This game was over 15 minutes from the start, when five goals had been scored.

The spree was started off by Peter Whitehurst for Waverley, and almost immediately Keilor City equalised when Dave Sharp put through his own goal.

Waverley then had a penalty converted by Norrie Ford to make it 2-1.

A good headed goal by Dave McCullough made it 3-1 and then came another penalty to Waverley.

Wojtczak in the Keilor goal saved Ford's shot, but a defender had encroached into the box and referee Dave Yelland ruled that the penalty must be taken again.

Ian Humble made no mistake the second time to make the score 4-1, and that was the half-time score.

With a Waverley victory assured, the only question left to settle was the margin, and in the second half play became very scrappy; in fact it got a bit willing at times, and at one stage in the proceedings, after a clash between Dave McCourt and Gunter Gerrick, there was a stoppage of about three minutes whilst referee Yelland restored order and also removed from the pitch an excited spectator who remonstrated with the linesman.

Waverely, after looking rather disinterested for most of the half, pulled themselves together and scored again through Peter Whitehurst, who snapped up a ball the goalie should have cleared, and popped it home.

Keilor had its chances to narrow the gap in the second half, but on at least three occasions shot high over the bar.

It missed a penalty when Roy Lawton in the Waverley goal, turned aside Alex Straubinger's shot in true Gordon Bank's style.

So Waverley ran out easy winners and bounced back convincingly after its big set back at Frankston last week.

Frankly, in the half that I saw, the opposition was too poor for me to form any opinion of Waverley's chances, but I feel that the Ian Humble - Dave McCullough twin spearhead will become an effective force this season.

For Keilor City K. Anschober stuck out like a sore thumb, but he had no support, and I can't understand what the club's policy is, looking back on the good players who have been allowed to leave.

However, if it doesn't pull its socks up, the ploy of taking over a First Division Club, lock, stock and barrel, will misfire, and it could find itself in the Second Division next season on this form.

TEAMS:
WAVERLEY. Lawton R., Fearn D., Ford N., Sharp D., Quy T., McCourt D., McCallum M., Saunders R., Humble Ian, McCullough D., Sanchez J.
KEILOR C. Wojczak, Gerrick, Mladenovski, Keifer, Woite, Tasevski, Anschober, Kinkel, Kralenski, Straubinger, Martin, Galo.

BOX HILL OUTDONE

FIRST DIVISION

The top performance of last week was that of Frankston City who went to Box Hill and played its best soccer for a long while, to win 2 - 1.

The win was made more meritorious by the fact that Norrie Campbell received marching orders from referee Mellings after 15 minutes.

The half-time score was 0-0 and no doubt Box Hill supporters felt confident, but in the second half Frankston, stringing its passes together well, took command and went ahead when David High scored from a penalty after Mick Benton had brought down Billy Buchanan.

Coach John Pryde just missed scoring with a free-kick and then from a corner taken by him Bill Buchanan back-headed number two.

Box Hill got a consolation goal when Serge Beradini fastened on a bad back-pass and scored.

Altona City were pleased to overcome a major obstacle in Albion Rovers at Selwyn Park.

Ex-Albion player Ian Reid did the trick after seven minutes, and there was no further scoring. Albion suffered a bad blow after a quarter of an hour when Rae had to be taken off, and later to hospital, suffering from concussion.

After being kept in for observation he was later allowed to go home.

In the second half, with the Albion mid-field in Gordon Bentley and Alan Quinn playing well, Albion had more of the play, but Altona, playing the off-side trap to perfection, kept it at bay.

After the game Albion officials were still wondering how it didn't get a point, but lack of fire-power could be the answer.

Bobby Pocock was Altona's best, closely followed by Keith Murray and a special work of praise goes to young Massini in the Altona goal. This boy, who is only 16, stepped in when Hans Van Der Poel was declared unfit, and didn't put a foot (or a hand) wrong. For Albion, Gordon Bentley, Alan Quinn and David Closs played well.

Green Gully Ajax, breathing down Altona's neck, had a good win over Melbourne, 4 - 1. Dave McCurry got the first goal with a prodigious header, from well outside the box after Roger Morgan had punched out a corner-kick.

Mick Banagan collected the second with an 18 yard shot and Eddie Klimczek put Ajax 3 - 0 up just before half-time.

In the second half Mick Banagan converted a penalty, and Vonja scored a good goal for Melbourne.

Melbourne now are joint tenants of the cellar with Western Suburbs, and unless it pulls something out of the bag will find itself in the Second next season.

This week's round sees an interesting clash between Essendon Lions and Green Gully, and the big question is, now that George Cross have shelled out big money for Paul Murphy, will it part with Johnny Gardiner to Lions?

My information is that he was at St. Albans on Saturday prepared to play for Lions, but there was a last minute hitch.

Two improvers in Frankston and St Albans, meet at Frankston, and Altona City entertain, if that's the right word, Waverley City.

THIS WEEK: MELBOURNE v Western Suburbs, Essendon Lions v Green Gully Ajax, FRANKSTON v St. Albans, Keilor City v BOX HILL, ALTONA v Waverely, ALBION R. v Croydon.

THE TOP THREE

After last week's round only three Clubs, Altona City in the First, Princes Park in the Second and Port Melbourne in the Third Divisions have 100% records.

Altona lead the First Division by one point from Green Gully, and also have yet to be scored against.

Princes Park, who seem to make a habit of starting with a bang every season, are now three points off Keilor, and in the Third, Port Melbourne has already scored an impressive 23 goals in four games, and its leading goalscorer MIKE HATSIEMANIOUL has 12 goals already.

ACTION MATCH DRAWN

SECOND DIVISION

Games went more or less to form in the Second Division, but Moreland's home jinx continued and Doveton seem unable to get going at all.

The day was not without incidents; beside the broken cross-bar comedy at Springvale, two Heidelberg players were sent off, and the remaining nine fought like tigers to come back from a 2-0 deficit to draw 2-2.

Richmond must have thought it had the points in the bag after goals from 14 yrs. old Michael Loh and Manny Kuhn.

Michael Loh came to Richmond from Nunawading and he could be the youngest player ever to play senior soccer.

Heidelberg also achieved five bookings, which again must be some sort of record.

If Heidelberg aren't careful it will soon be emulating George Cross, who had its fifth player sent off in as many matches, last week.

Dandenong City came back to form and put a smile on Noddy Davey's face when Arthur Hill scored direct from a corner to give it the points at Moreland.

Dandenong were gingered up by the acquisition of Dick Smart from Waverley, in fact he was best, followed closely by Arthur Hill and Brian Holcombe.

Newport gained a point from its trip to Keilor but admitted the home side was the better on the day.

Goalkeeper Richard Andrejewski played well, and so did Eddie Wrobel and Eddie Sowula, but Newport will have to start scoring goals soon.

Princes Park won an entertaining game against Bayswater, 4-0, but the score flattered it somewhat as Bayswater had at least 50% of the play but couldn't score the goals, which is what it's all about. Goal scorers for Princes Park were Bitsounis (2) and Sahinidis (2).

Best for Bayswater were Dick Gerish and Les Davis.

This week's top game is between Brighton and Keilor, and Dandenong have a good chance of making progress at the expense of Heidelberg.

Port power

THIRD DIVISION

If it's goals you are after, this is the Division where you'll find them.

Saturday saw no less than 34 scored in six games, 15 of them at Port Melbourne.

In an extraordinary game there, Port Melbourne went ahead in the first minute, only to see Yallourn forge past it to 2-1.

Back came Port with three more to lead 4-2 at half-time.

Three more from Port and two more from Yallourn, including a penalty to bring the score to 7-4. Yallourn got a bit dispirited then, and Port popped in four more to run out fairly convincing winners 11-4.

Goalscorers for Port were Mike Hatsiemanioul with four, (for the second time this season), 'Darkie' Svingos, 2, Nick Lazarithis, 2, George Gadonas and George Karagianis, but of Port Melbourne's 23 goals to date, Hatsiemanioul has 12, Lazarithis has 4 and Svingos 3.

Park Rangers beat Prahran in an average game.

After a scoreless first half Billy Ashton scored twice for Park Rangers and Serge Citerella pulled one back for Prahran City.

In a fast exciting game at Moorabbin, Ringwood United did well enough to share the points.

Moorabbin started brightly, with a goal after five minutes from Steve Thomas.

However, Ringwood fought back and equalised 10 minutes later, through J. Ryan.

Ten minutes into the second half Jimmy Brown volleyed the ball home from 30 yards out, after a free-kick had been headed away, for Moorabbin to take the lead again, but Ringwood were not to be denied, and equalised again with a very good goal from J. Keuken.

This week's matches see Port Melbourne at Eltham, and Park Rangers away to Coburg, and of the top four teams Moorabbin would seem to have the easiest task at Chelsea.

Bell Park v Ringwood U.; PRAHRAN v. N. Carlton; Coburg v Park Rangers; Yallourn v DONCASTER ROVERS; Eltham v PORT MELBOURNE; Chelsea v Moorabbin.

Fourth Division

In some ways, this is always the most interesting Division in the Metro, because these clubs seem to have an Alfred Hithcock propensity for producing cliff-hanging finishes.

After four weeks, no club has maximum points, and the top eight are separated by only three points.

Pace setters Broadmeadows kept the pot boiling with a good 3-0 win at Mornington.

After an even first half, it ran away from a disappointing Mornington, for whom Paul Smith and ex-Sunshine player, Doug Gray, played well.

Sandringham was disappointed to get only a point from the visit to Caulfield.

Gerry Boggan scored its goal, but with only seven goals on the board, compared with the leaders' 14, it plainly lacks fire-power. It has a chance this week to make up for it, as it takes on Broadmeadows, and the leaders will have to be on its toes, as both Rosebud and Ballarat have comparatively easy tasks.

Sandringham v BROADMEADOWS; BALLARAT v Caulfield; Monash v Essendon; ROSEBUD v Corio; UNI of MELBOURNE v Sth Yarra; Clayton v Mornington.

Blakes tries out

World-rated fighter Blakeney "Kid" Matthews (left) works out with Charlie Buttigieg, captain of Victorian Industrial League team Linatex.

Matthews, who last year beat Lionel Rose and is now a contender for the world junior lightweight title, has been a soccer fan since his childhood.

So he came down to Linatex and took part in a practice match.

He impressed with his tricky footwork and we're told the Linatex players weren't too keen on tackling him too hard.

Matthews is known as the Muhammad Ali of the lighter divisions.

ZIKA NIKOLIC

Odavno JUST-ovo igralište nije bilo tako ispunjeno publikom, kao prošle nedelje pred utakmicu JUST - MAKEDONIJA. JUST je dobio još dva boda i sa Sunshine City-em jedini ostao neporažen.

U publici su navijači Makedonije bili daleko brojniji i bučniji, ali uvek u okviru sportskog ponašanja. Otišli su kući nezadovoljni, jer je Makedonija bila ravnopravan protivnik, čak nadmočnija u završnici.

Pred ovu važnu utakmicu JUST-a je pratio maler. Branko Buljević koji je duša tima, kažnjen je sa dve utakmice neigranja. To je bio udarac za njega i klub. On je to Očekivao, ne zbog svoje krivice već zbog očigledne diskriminacije etničkih klubova i imena. Mnogi dnevni listovi bespravno izbacuju etnička imena klubova, bez kojih bi nogomet bio mrtvo slovo na papiru.

Drugi udar za JUST-a bio je Parrott zbog povrede na treningu. Zbog toga je Ćirković izveo vrlo čudan sastav: BOLAND, RISTIĆ (ZORAJA), KAZI KRIARIS, ILIOSKI, PALINKAS, MICIĆ, PICIOANE, RUJEVIĆ, (ADAMGIKIS), RISTOVSKI.

Sa ovako rashodovanim sastavom, JUST je iznenadio Makedoniju na početku igre, kada je Kondarios dva puta pogodio mrežu, pa se onda taktički branio sa uspehom.

Sastav Makedonije: Laumets, Trajkovski, Pirzas, McIntyre, Mc Cracken, Petrovski, Jones, L. J. Fox, Al. Fox (Stojanovski), Cambell (Presilski), Beech.

Ono što nije uspelo prvom timu Makedonije, postigli su rezerva i juniori ispod 14 i 16 godina. Rezerva Makedonije je pobedila JUST sa 2:1 (1:0).

Strelci: Masalkovski 2 za Makedoniju i Gelevski za JUST.

Sastav Makedonije: Tanevski 6, Trajčevski 7, Finlayson 7, Green 8, Ashton 7, Masalkovski 9, Homa 6, Kotevski 7, Ristevski 7, Comar 6, Dimovski 7.

JUST-ova rezerva: Oravec 6 (Bikicki 6), Roganović 7, Mikuřčić 6, Acevski 7, Jović 7, Petkovski 6, Tom Petrevski 7, Micevski 7, (Petre Petrevski 7), Talevski 6, Gelevski 7, Tomić 7.

Juniori ispod 12 godina: just — Keilor/Austria 3:0. Strelci: Bale Skubevski, Dragan Trkulja, Ratko Belić.

Posle ravnopravne igre, kojom su dominirale obrane, utakmica St. Albans – H.N.K.Essendon se završila bez golova. Isto tako je Keilor/Austria, za koju igra mnogo naših zemljaka, igrala sa Newportom 0:0.

Provizionalna liga: Carlton – Fawkner 3:3 (3:2). Strelci: Bjelogrlić 2 i Jankovski.

Sastav Carltona: Jevtović 5, Veljović 6 (Krnić 6), Šamanović 7, Djordjević 6, Nikolić 7, Dodig 7, Kosovac 7, Bjelogrlić 8, Erdedi 6, Veličković 7, Jankovski 7 (Ljubojević 5).

AMATERSKE LIGE

INTER/Williamstown iako gost u Hopper Crossing-u visoko je porazio borbenu domaću ekipu sa 4:1 (1:0). Prvi gol su „BELI" dobili na poklon, ali su u drugom delu pružili šampionsku igru i postigli još tri preko Zvonka Bartola 2 i novog centarfora Mirka Vasilovskog.

Sastav Intera: Mić Karafili 7, Djuro Belanji 6, Tony Dović 6, Milorad Milosavljević 7, Jonče Cerovski 7, Franjo Droždek 9, Stevo Hregorešin 7, Dragiša Pantić 8, Mirko Vasilovski 8, Zvonko Bartol 8, Andy Dović 7.

KENSINGTON – EAST CARLTON 2:2.

Strelci za Kensington: A. Stojanović i J. Ivanovski. Sastav Kensingtona: J. Janković 8, B. Milisavljević 7, P. Delazaro 6, B. Perovski 7? S. Pejković 9, D. Stefanios 6, A. Stojanović 6, M. Tucarov 7, J. Ivanovski 7, J. Pejković 7, M. Bubulj 6. Trener Kensingtona je bio zadovoljan jer su pored prvog tima zabeležili pobede: rezerva sa 1:0 (strelac Blagoja Mitrevski), ispod 13 godina sa 7:1 i ispod 11 godina 1:0.

INDUSTRIJSKA LIGA

PEGASUS–ERICSON 1:1 (1:0).

Ravnopravna igra dva jugoslavenska sastava. Strelac za Pegasus: Ljubiša Pavlović. Sastav Pegasusa: Mirko Franjić 5, Tony Plačko 7, Steve Stanilović 6, Vili Ovčar 7, John Mori 5 (Roger Haris 6), Mirko Plačko 7 (Janko Jakovljević 5), Frank Franjić 7, Ljubiša Pavlović 6, Ivan Fuš 6, Jože Rajher 5, Vili borovnjak 5.

KODAK–TARAX 4:1 (1:1). „Tarax" ima suviše navalnih igrača, ali šuplju odbranu (sem golmana Sandor Kazija), pa zato gubi bodove. Strelci: Adamović sa 11 metara i Tomislav Stanković iz mrtvog ugla. Sastav Taraxa: Kazi 7, Kolarić 4, Genja Kostromin 5 (Spasojević 6), Ranković 6, Brkić 5, Subotin 7, Mladenović 7, Adamović 7, Mihoček 6, Stanković 7, Viktor Kostromin 6.

UKRATKO IZ JUGOSLAVIJE

Kup UEFA (mlade reprezentacije): Jugoslavija – Bugarska 3:2 u Nišu.

Strelci: Mulahasanović 2, i Halil Hodžić 1.

Giuseppe Savoldi

fewer and fewer young players want to be a centre-forward; they all prefer midfield or defence.

Q. So you feel some change in emphasis is necessary?

SAVOLDI: I think it's largely up to the coaches. If one of them takes a chance on attacking football, perhaps in a season when he suspects his defence maybe isn't quite up to scratch anyway, and the sheer surprise of it comes off, perhaps the game will swing the other way. But as long as teams like Juventus can win the Championship by scoring less than 50 goals, there's not much hope of a major revolution in tactics.

Q. And what has the move South meant to you so far?

SAVOLDI: Oh, the contrast between Bologna and Napoli is almost impossible to describe. Bologna is a rather ugly, rather staid city, where people take their work very seriously. Napoli is much more beautiful, much more gay, and the prestige of football is somehow greater here.

Q. But for all that, Naples have still to win the League Championship, while at least Bologna, in your younger days, did win the title. . .

SAVOLDI: Yes, we had a great team at Bologna, what with Bulgarelli and Haller and so on, but somehow we never made the most of our opportunities. Our salaries were often lower than those of the big clubs, our admission prices were too cheap, and so none of the really top players would come to the club because Bologna couldn't or wouldn't pay big saleries and transfer.

Expert coaching for juniors

Two of Australia's best known soccer personalities, Rale Rasic and Johnny Warren, will conduct two junior soccer courses, of one week's duration each at Eaglefield Stadium, Jenner Road, Dural, as follows:

Week 1: Monday May 10 to Saturday May 15.

Week 2: Monday May 17 to Saturday, May 22.

The program will start at 10a.m. and finish at 4p.m. on each day. A specially prepared health lunch will be provided each day to all participants.

The program will be designed to match the maturity and needs of the different age groups: 10 to 12; 12 to 14; 14 to 16 years. Boys older than 16 years or younger than 10 years will be enrolled if all places available are not taken up by nominations in the 10 to 16 years group.

Subjects to be covered by the course in addition to skills and tactics will include the basic of refereeing, physical conditioning, physiotherapy and sports medicine. These subjects will be presented by leading personalities from soccer and other sports.

Π.Α.Ο.Κ.

Ὁ διορισμὸς τοῦ κ. Τζίμ Σώλντερ ὡς προπονητοῦ τῆς Ἐθνικῆς Αὐστραλίας, ὁπωσδήποτε ἦταν τὸ ποδοσφαιρικὸ γεγονὸς τῆς χρονιᾶς ἀποκαλύπτοντας ἔτσι τὶς διχόνοιες καὶ τὶς προσωπικὲς φιλιοδοξίες τῶν ποδοσφαιροπατέρων μας.

Ἐκτὸς αὐτοῦ ὅμως ὅσον ἀφορᾶ τὸν ἴδιο τὸν προπονητή, ὁ διορισμὸς του ἴσως εἶναι ὁ θεμέλιος λίθος μιᾶς νέας ἐποχῆς ὅπου ἡ ἐκλογὴ τῶν παικτῶν, γιὰ τὴν ἐθνικὴ ὁμάδα θὰ γίνεται μὲ... δημοκρατικότερο τρόπο, βάζοντας τέρμα στὸ μονοπώλιο τῶν παικτῶν τοῦ Σύδνεϋ.

Ὁ κ. Σώλντερ κατὰ τὴν παραμονή του στὴ Μελβούρνη παρακολούθησε τὸν ἀγῶνα Σάνσαην — Ἑλλὰς καὶ ἔμεινε ἐνθουσιασμένος ἀπὸ ὡρισμένοι παῖκτες. Ἄλλωστε, στὴν συνέντευξή του, πρὸς τὸν Τύπο τῆς Μελβούρνης, ἄφησε νὰ ἐννοηθῆ ὅτι ἀνοίγει μία νέα ἐποχὴ στὴν ἐπιλογὴ τῶν παικτῶν. Εἶναι ἀποφασισμένος νὰ ἐπιμείνη στὸ θέμα αὐτὸ καὶ ὁπωσδήποτε εἶναι πολὺ εὐχάριστο γιὰ τὸν ποδοσφαιρόκοσμο τῆς Μελβούρνης πού χρόνια τώρα ἀρκεῖτο στὸ νὰ στέλνει ἕνα ἢ δύο νὰ παίξη μπάλλα μὲ τούς παῖκτες οἱ ὁποῖοι ἀποτελοῦσαν τὴν Μικτὴ Σύδνεϋ καὶ τὴν ἐθνικὴ Αὐστραλίας!

Εἴμαστε σίγουροι ὅτι θὰ σπάση αὐτὴ ἡ παράδοση μὲ τὸν διορισμὸ τοῦ κ. Σώλντερ. Ὑπάρχουν ἀρκετοὶ καλοὶ παῖκτες στὴν Βικτώρια πού ἀπὸ καιρὸ θὰ ἔπρεπε νὰ εἶχαν κληθῆ στὴν ἐθνικὴ. Ἴσως ἡ... μέλλουσα(;) ἐθνικὴ κατηγορία νὰ δώση αὐτὴ τὴν εὐκαιρία στούς παῖκτες, ἀλλὰ ἡ ἐθνικὴ κατηγορία παραμένει ἀκόμα ὄνειρο, διότι ἔτσι τὴν θέλουν ὡρισμένοι καὶ μάλιστα ἀπὸ τὴν Βικτώρια νὰ μείνη. Ὄνειρο!!!

Μιλήσαμε προηγουμένως γιὰ παράδοση καὶ γιὰ κατεστημένο στὸ ποδόσφαιρο. Στὴν Ἑλλάδα αὐτὴ τὴν στιγμὴ καὶ τὰ δύο κλονίζονται.

Κλονίζονται ἀπὸ μία μεγάλη ὁμάδα τοῦ Βορρᾶ, ἡ ὁποία σύμφωνα μὲ τὰ δεδομένα θὰ πρέπει νὰ τερματίση πρωταθλήτρια.

Φυσικὰ μιλᾶμε γιὰ τὸν μεγάλο ΠΑΟΚ πού τόλμησε νὰ πάρη τὸ πρωτάθλημα στὴν Θεσσαλονίκη.

Ἂν τελικὰ στεφθῆ πρωταθλητής, θ' ἀνοίξη μία καινούργια σελίδα στὴν ἱστορία τοῦ ποδοσφαίρου τῆς Πατρίδος. Μία σελίδα στὴν ὁποία κάθε σωματεῖο μικρὸ ἢ μεγάλο θὰ μπορεῖ νὰ διεκδικῆ τὰ πρωτεῖα μὲ ἴσους ὅρους καὶ ὄχι νὰ βρίσκεται ἀντιμέτωπο μὲ ...χρηματοκιβώτια καὶ ...καρδιά!

Ὁ ΠΑΟΚ ἔσπασε τὸ φράγμα τοῦ ποδοσφαιρικοῦ κατεστημένου, τὸ ὁποῖο τὸ μόνο πού εἶχε καταφέρει μέχρι τώρα ἦταν νὰ μονοπωλῆ τοὺς τίτλους μὲ κάθε μέσο. Π.Α.Ο.Κ συγχαρητήρια.

MELBOURNE'S COACH QUITS

PETER SWEENEY looks at the Victorian Metropolitan and Provisional Leagues.

Joe Veres has resigned as coach of first division club Melbourne.

He has been replaced by club stalwart Bill Allisen, who is better known in junior coaching circles.

Melbourne, relegated from the State League at the end of last season, has had a bad start this year.

It lost two of the first three matches and drew the other one.

President Joe Tolnac said: "Voros resigned because of business commitments.

"He said he just couldn't carry on."

Mr Tolnac denied that the club applied pressure on Voros to resign.

Bill Allison is well respected at Melbourne.

He was a player with the club in its early days.

Breslin to Brighton

Prahran City has signed David Breslin from Brighton.

Breslin last played with the Panthers two yeras ago.

Prahran has also signed Slavia's Peter Crawley, a former Southend player.

Prahran is blooding some of last year's third division reserve players which won the championship.

Two of these are Donovan de Cerff, 20, and 6'4" Stan Bennett, both of whom have scored goals in the opening three matches.

McDonald to play?

Fourth division side South Yarra is seeking a clearance for its coach Ian McDonald.

And if he is cleared it's certain that McDonald, 40, will take his place as a goalkeeper with the team.

McDonald, a former State League player with Hakoah, is still awaiting a clearance from Albion Rovers.

It is expeeted there will be little trouble in McDonald gaiming a clearance, as he probably would not fill a regular position with the first division club.

South Yarra has had a poor start to the season and will try anything in an attempt to gain points.

Lou De Marchi is still on the sidelines through a broken arm.

DeMarchi, a brother of Juventus stalwart Dino, had a run in the reserves a fortnight ago but was told by a doctor to rest again.

He will not play for about two weeks.

The team has worries in the midfield area — from where it has been losing most of its games.

The defence has been asked to do too much, with the obvious result that opposing sides are having little trouble in scoring.

One player the club hopes to obtain is Dave McDermott of Provisional League club ANZ Bank.

South Yarra has issued a warning to other fourth division sides, saying that it will soon be at full strength and will cause a few surprises later in the season.

South Yarra shares a ground with an Australian Rules club.

On Monday and Wednesday nights it trains under lights at a ground used by the Old Melbournians Football Club.

Dance 2001

Mornington will hold a dance late this month.

The dance will take the theme of the year 2001.

It will be held at the Mornington Youth Club.

Further information can be obtained by contacting Philip Talbot on 544 0411.

The last social function the club held was in the form of 1950's clothes style and before that the club held a fancy dress ball.

Mornington has not had a good start to the year and is hoping that it will regain form shortly.

'Borough recruits

Greensborough has signed brothers Howard and Colin Ellis from Yallourn.

Both are centre backs and both were in Yallourn's senior team.

Greensborough coach Neil Love has also snared Tony Borg from Moreland. Borg scored the first of Greensborough's goals in its recent 4-2 victory over Regent.

The club has just shifted to its new ground, Willanda Reserve. The dressing rooms there cost $60,000, of which Greensborough has paid $9000.

Traralgon's history of success

Traralgon Soccer Club was born in 1968.

That year it won the Battle of Britain Cup — the top knockout competition in the Latrobe Valley League.

Traralgon won the same cup two years later and again last season, after finishing runner-up to the strong Morwell Falcons side in 1972.

The Traralgon club grew so big that in 1975 it moved to Harold Preston Park and added City to its name because of the bigger image.

Traralgon City has started the new year off well — being undefeated in both first and second eleven sides.

An ever-active ladies auxiliary plays a big part in the side's success.

One person who does a lot for club promotion is 72-year-old Chris Spindle, who is a foundation member of Traralgon and Newborough United, which was founded in 1956.
